PROSECUTOR FILES REPORT

577 CRIMINAL CASES DISPOSED OF IN YEAR.

FINES COLLECTED $434

Many Juvenile Cases Enlarges Total of Those Disposed of—Not a Single Indictment Quashed on Account of Error—17 Escapes.

Lisbon, Oct. 13.—Prosecutor L. P. Metzger this morning filed with the county commissioners his annual report from September 1, 1910, to September 1, 1911, which consists of statistics which have been compiled in regard to cases disposed of through his office. During the past year there were 577 criminal cases disposed of by the prosecutor's office. This, however, does not mean that the county has suddenly become a hotbed of crime, but it does mean that in addition to cases tried in probate court there were 284 juvenile cases disposed of by the assistant prosecutor in juvenile court. In common pleas court there were 100 criminal cases. In probate court there were 193 cases. In common pleas court there were 41 pleas of guilty, 23 cases were nolled, two acquitted and the balance were pursued to successful convictions. In nine of the cases nolled all were against one man who entered a plea of guilty to one charge and is now serving a sentence in the penitentiary. During the past year, 17 persons charged with crime have escaped arrest. There were $434 collected in fines. In the probate court there were 111 pleas of guilty and convictions and in two cases acquittals were had, and there were 24 cases nolled, these being mostly contributing charges against parents, who afterwards cleaned up their homes and had the action against them dismissed.

In 1909 there were 72 criminal cases in common pleas and 42 in probate court and but nine juvenile cases. In common pleas court $645 was collected in fines and in probate court there was $1,505 collected in fines.

In 1910 there were 117 criminal cases in commop pleas court, 114 in probate court and in the former court $620 was collected in fines while in the latter $1,825 was collected in fines. Adding the number of juvenile cases, which is 94 for the year, gives a total of 239 cases. The prosecutor's office has made a splendid record owing to the fact that not a single indictment has been quashed or dismissed on account of error. In the three years just passed out of the 1,200 cases there were but 10 acquittals, three of these being personally directed by the court, at the request of the prosecutor.

Rebels, outlaws and mutineers from the imperial army have started a general massacre throught Hu-Peh province. The rebels are in complete possession of Shanghai and late reports today state that they have occupied two more cities. Heavy bodies of imperial troops are being moved south rapidly. Two hundred miles of Pekin and Shanghai railroad have been destroyed.

INSTALLING 3 MASSIVE PRESSES AT MULLINS PLANT

The Mullins company is rapidly bringing to completion a large new addition to the press room in the west end of their main plant. A large force of workmen has been engaged for some time in the actual erecting work, and now men are busily engaged in placing the structural steel work and foundations for three triple presses of latest model. The electric crane, now operated in the old press room, will be extended to operate in the addition. It is understood that in the near future the main building may be still further added to as far as the railroad.

Frank Mercer went to Cleveland on business Thursday.

WORKERS FROM MISSION FIELDS TELL OF WORK

Salem women of the M. E. church who have been attending the sessions of the forty-second annual meeting of the Cincinnati branch of the Women's Foreign Missionary society of the M. E. church at Alliance this week, have found the meetings unusually interesting. Addresses by missionaries from India and China have delighted the missionary workers. Among the most prominent is Dr. Isaac T. Headland, of Pekin, China. Bishop W. F. McDowell, of the Methodist church, made the opening address at the convention.

Among the missionaries and former missionaries who spoke were the following: India, Miss Anna Gallmore, Mrs. Emma M. Scott, Dr. Emma Scott, Miss Alice Means, Miss Nora B. Waugh; Japan, Miss Mariana Young, Miss Alice Finley; China, Mrs. Sites, Mrs. Lillian Hale Wilday, Mrs. Mary Thomas; Mexico, Miss Grace A. Hollister; Malasia, Mrs. Mary Carr Curtis; out-going missionaries, Dr. Lola Huffman and Dr. May Dutton.

At Thursday's session the following officers were elected:

President emeritus, Mrs. Wm. B. Davis, Cincinnati; corresponding secretary emeritus, Mrs. B. R. Cowan, Mobile, Ala.; president, Mrs. A. J. Clarke, Wheeling, W. Va.; vice president, Mrs. Philip Roettinger, Wyoming, O.; vice president at large, Mrs. J. F. Fisher, Cleveland; corresponding secretary, Mrs. E. L. Thomas, Cincinnati; secretary of special work, Miss Cora Haines, Cincinnati; secretary of college work, Miss Elizabeth Roettinger, Cincinnati; recording secretary, Mrs. L. L. Townley, Wyoming, O.; receiving treasurer, Mrs. John C. Kunz, Cincinnati; disbursing treasurer, Mrs. C. C. Boyd, Covington, Ky.

More Vigorous Law Enforcement In County Demanded By W.C.T.U.

W. C. T. U. members of Columbiana county, in convention at Columbiana recently, passed resolutions deprecating the lax enforcement of laws, especially "those relating to the sale of cigarets to minors, obscene postcards and the laws governing the sale of intoxicating liquors in some localities of Columbiana county," and requesting the prosecuting attorney to use his authority to compel various officials to perform properly their duties in this regard. The present county jail was condemned because it is unfit for the confinement of prisoners and the convention resolved to ask the county commissioners to set aside $300 for a minister to hold services at the infirmary each Sunday that the weather is favorable for services on the lawn.

Woman's suffrage, that which "every principle of justice demands," was favored by resolution and various resolutions were passed that pertain to temperance pledges in connection with the coming local option election and election of a constitutional convention delegate.

DRYS MAY ABANDON PLAN TO PUBLISH NAMES ON PETITION

Lisbon, Oct. 13.—While stenographers have been busily at work here copying the names of all persons who signed the petition calling for a county local option election, it was learned here last evening that in all probability the "drys" may abandon the plan of publishing these names. The reason given is that the names of many "dry" voters were found on the petition. Lists for each precinct in the county will be made up, however, and forwarded to the workers in the precincts. Plans for the big dry rally here at the Rollaway rink next Tuesday evening are about completed.

Local "wet" forces contend that the large number of signatures to the petition which they secured in the rural districts this time indicates that the rural townships will not be as "dry" as they were three years ago. The "wets" seem extremely confident of success this year.

East Liverpool, Oct. 13.—(Special).—Rev. H. A. Kelsey, secretary of the dry forces in the county made a statement today that the situation is very encouraging and declared that many young voters who are casting their first ballot, will vote for prohibition and cites a letter from D. F. Reese, a student at Muskingum college at New Concord. John S. Caneen, of Chicago, who was to have opened the Dry campaign in Wellsville, through some misunderstanding, did not arrive to speak there last evening.

Last night there were dry meetings in Wellsville, East Liverpool, and District No. 9 school, near East Liverpool. The meeting Friday night at Lectonia will be assisted by E. E. Heidrich, V. Shriver and Rev. E. M. Kirby.

RETURN OF SEBRING POTTERY VALUATIONS COMPLETES TAXATION WORK IN MAHONING

Youngstown, Oct. 13.—All Mahoning county corporations have now made returns on their taxable property to County Auditor W. B. Jones. The Sebring pottery companies who were tardy in furnishing their returns complied with the law in this respect Monday.

The Sebring corporations were holding off to ascertain the returns furnished by the Columbiana potteries. Auditor Jones went to Sebring Monday and succeeded in obtaining the returns on the taxable property of all the Sebring companies. In every instances the returns were between two and three times greater than they were last year.

The law requires all corporations doing business in Mahoning county to make their returns to the county auditor who in turn forwards the same to the state tax commission. That body has the power to order an increase over the returns furnished by any or all corporations.

The valuation on property owned by public utility companies, such as street railways, steam railroads, water, lighting and heating plants is fixed direct by the state tax commission which sits at Columbus.

Holiday Girl To Leave Lisbon; Is Going South

Lisbon, Oct. 13.—Lisbon is about to lose the girl whose escapades have made the old town famous. Margaret Holiday, the "nude art" girl upon whom the eyes of many of the states of this Union were turned but a few weeks ago, will leave for the south with her brother, Walter Holiday and his wife today. Walter owns and operates a candy wheel and following the closing of the fairs in this vicinity he concluded to leave for the south and follow the candy selling in the warm climate. Margaret will go with him to assist in the work and will leave today.

Margaret Holiday has posed as a different girl since the grand juries of Mahoning and Columbiana counties refused to indict Miller and Johnson, whom she claimed had been the ruination of her reputation and character. During the time the cases were pending before the grand juries her air was defiant, but since the reports were made she has been on the streets but occasionally, and when she was seen going to the postoffice or stores she spoke to no one and carried a depressed look with her.

Will of John Kirk.

By the terms of the will of the late John C. Kirk, of Canfield, who died October 4, all rents from his property go to his wife, Mary Kirk, during her lifetime and then to his daughter, Jane Frederick, for life. The property ultimately falls to his two grandchildren. The will was signed April 6, 1911.

Terrible Catastrophy Averted.

Columbiana Ledger: A Salem paper states that a street car in that city took fire Saturday afternoon and might have burned up if the fire had not been gotten under control. What a terrible catastrophe and fearful loss of property would have resulted had one of those street cars burned.

"LIVE WIRE" FLASHES.

"Early to bed, early to rise,
Preach the gospel and advertise."

Ramsey said Thursday evening, "Now everybody sing except you ladies who kissed with your husbands before you came here. You are not to sing, but you can sit there and look pious. No one will know but what you are."

The "Little Giant" said the other evening, "Rev. Grable is all tuckered out; just been to a wedding feast. Now see here, folks, you've got to cut out this thing of getting married till after these meetings are over. There's no sense in it. Grable is going to give half of that wedding fee to the collection tonight, and if you give as much you won't have enough money saved up to get married on till we are through with the meetings. I married a couple once for a dollar, because if I hadn't I'd have lost the job, but I'm not going to marry any of you for a dollar till after we're through here. Then we'll take a day and make it a job lot, at reduced rates. Now we'll cut this out, won't we?"

There will be a men's mass meeting Sunday afternoon at 2:30, for all men between the ages of 15 and 105. I used to have the limit at 90, but one old fellow got on his ear because he couldn't come. Since I put it at 105 I have had no further trouble.

MRS. WILSON DIVORCED FROM HUSBAND, WARREN

Lisbon, Oct. 14. — The case of Blanche Wilson against Warren Wilson was disposed of this morning in common pleas court when Judge J. G. Moore granted the plaintiff her divorce on the grounds of gross neglect of duty, wilful absence, and extreme cruelty. The plaintiff was married to the defendant in October 1901. The defendant is now in Youngstown, while the plaintiff is at the home of her parents, in Washingtonville. The custody of the two children Harold, aged eight, and Thomas aged 6, was granted to the plaintiff.

Donations for Orphanage Asked

All those contributing to the Cleveland Childrens' orphanage are asked to bring their donations to the Christian church next Sunday morning. Plenty of potatoes and apples are asked for.

Mrs. F. A. Saywell returned to Hudson Friday after a short visit with Mrs. Russel Stanley, of Jennings avenue.

CAPACITY OF GLOBE HARDLY SUFFICIENT.

CHRIST CAME TO SAVE

Like La Fayette, He Came Not for Any Benefit to Himself But to Give His Life, if Need Be, for Others—Dr. Jordan's Sermon.

Eleven hundred persons assembled to hear Dr. Jordan, the great evangelist. That is the record made by the people of Salem at the union revival meeting at the Globe Thursday evening, the first really pleasant evening of the week. Not only were there numbers present, but Evangelist Jordan said at the conclusion of the service that a wonderful spirit was manifested during the meeting, and so sure is he of the rapid growth of the attendance that he is already considering plans for increasing the capacity of the auditorium. One of the noticeable things about the song service was that the orchestra has got together wonderfully well in these few days, and is doing splendid work, as leader of the magnificent chorus of 300 voices. The singing is truly wonderful, and much of its success is due only to the fact that the most accomplished singers of the city are lending their talents, but also to the masterful way in which Chorister Ramsey conducts them, and rouses them to do their best. He is possessed of a vast fund of pleasing wit and inexhaustible good humor, and if after he has put forth his best efforts the people do not sing, it is because they are so amused that they cannot.

The real service began when Soloist Johnson, the man who within a few days has sung his way into the hearts of many people in Salem, a man who has lived and is now living the life of which he sings, who interprets with truest and tenderest feeling the old songs we love so well, sang one of our best-loved hymns:

In loving kindness Jesus came,
My soul in mercy to reclaim,
And from the depths of sin and shame,
Through grace He lifted me.

He called me long before I heard,
Before my sinful heart was stirred,
But when I took Him at His word,
Forgiv'n He lifted me.

From sinking sand He lifted me,
With tender hand He lifted me,
From shades of night to plains of light,
O praise His name, He lifted me.

Dr. Jordan took as his text and the theme of his discourse the words of Luke, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost" and spoke as follows:

"During the dark days of the American Revolution there came a ray of light, when from the other side of the sea came to join the colonial forces against their foes in the Old World. That man was La Fayette, who came because it is a magnificent, a splendid thing to fight for one's convictions. He was a mighty uplift. I believe that if it had not been for his coming France would not later have become our defender, and the throwing off of the yoke of Britain might have been delayed or never accomplished. LaFayette did not come to study, to look on, but to seek and to assist in saving our cause.

I remember well an experience of my boyhood, when with a group of companions I was slaking my thirst at an old wooden pump. We saw upon a nearby tree some fruit, most inviting in appearance, and not until later did we learn that it was forbidden fruit as well. We began to pluck it and put it in our capacious pockets as rapidly as possible. Just when we were packed to the limit the good woman of the house and the garden in which the tree stood spied us. Now one boy stood on the top of a picket fence upon a rail, and as he saw that woman of the house coming with vinegar upon her lips and vinegar in her countenance and salt and pepper in every action, he made a leap and his trousers, which he had rolled up in much the same fashion that some dudes are rolling theirs at the present time, caught upon a picket, so that he hung there head down, where he could only touch the ground with a finger tip, and screamed lustily for help. And just as that woman was about to dust the two hemispheres we rescued him, we sought and saved him. Like La Fayette Christ came into the world not as a sightseer but as the Son of

THE LOWER TAX RATE

In the recent past when prospective investors or manufacturers seeking new locations have visited Salem it has been the custom of the accommodating members of the board of trade to show them about the city and answer as promptly and satisfactorily as possible all questions asked. However, one question has always been evaded when possible, or the subject changed very quickly after it was answered (We trust we are giving away a carefully guarded secret). We refer to the question: "What is your tax rate?" Really, it has been decidedly embarrassing to reply: "Almost four per cent," but that was the bitter truth that couldn't very well be avoided.

But a better day has dawned. There has been a change for the better in Ohio taxation matters and it was the pleasure of this paper to inform the people of Salem Wednesday that for the next four years, at least, and possibly for all time to come, there'll be no such outrageous tax rate hanging over our heads. Of course taxable valuations are higher, but that is right. They are now nearer what they should have been all the time. Low valuations invariably mean that some people escape their just share of taxation and the consequent high rate means that those who are honest enough to give in their property at something like its true value are forced to bear a heavy and unjust burden.

We have just learned that because of false and misleading statements in the telegraphic dispatches in several northern newspapers we were recently led to criticise Dr. Booker T. Washington unjustly, however gently may have been our comments. It seems that recently while Dr. Washington was making a speaking tour in Texas a report was sent out from that state that he had refused to ride in a "Jim Crow" car with other members of his race and had chartered an entire Pullman in preference. In a written explanation and denial Dr. Washington gives the exact facts. He was engaged by the Negro Business league of Texas to make a ten day tour of that state, stopping and speaking at four or five points each day. Naturally such strenuous work required facilities for rest and accordingly the league chartered a Pullman for Dr. Washington and his party. So it will be seen that instead of trying to avoid the members of his race, as the false report from Texas seemed to indicate, Dr. Washington was working right among them and associating with them every hour and every day he was in Texas. We are very glad indeed to make this correction in behalf of this recognized leader of the Negro race in America, who upon the occasion of a visit to this city during our centennial celebration won the admiration and respect of a large number of our citizens.

However one may be inclined to criticise the police authorities for holding up the printed report of the Chicago Vice commission as matter unfit for transmission through the mails, this very incident alone is enough to convince the observing that the extent and character of the vice which this commission uncovered must have been most revolting and a serious blot upon the name of the Illinois metropolis. It is hard to believe that the mere fires of human passion and depravity would lead to the widespread prevalence and increase of vice in Chicago without an occasional reaction. Seeking for a more convincing reason, we find the estimate of Clifford Roe, author of "The Prodigal Daughter," who finds that the cash profit from vice in that city reaches the amazing total of $15,000,000 a year. The dollar mark, then, there as elsewhere becomes the most appropriate symbol of the dive and the house of ill fame.

Pasture is drying up and farmers are commencing to feed stock.

It is learned that there will be no lack of bidders for the work on the Salem railroad. The railroad construction this year has been so small that contractors who would not care for so small a job are anxious even for a small contract. The trustees of the Salem railroad expect to have quite a number of bids from contractors among the most prominent in the country. In fact they are assured of this as four or five big contractors are already making figures.

TRIAL WILL DRAG IN HUNT FOR JURY

Los Angeles, Oct. 13.—The second day's trial of James B. McNamara, charged with the murder of Charles Haggerty, one of the 19 victims of the Los Angeles Times explosion, was resumed at 10 o'clock this morning with Venireman Z. T. Nelson, of Long Beach again the central figure of a cross fire of questions aimed by attorneys for defense.

Armed with the ruling of Judge Bordwell that prospective jurors can be questioned regarding their attitude toward organized labor, Chief Counsel Clarence Darrow and his assistants have framed a series of questions that will make it possible to get at the feeling of veniremen in this respect without placing in jeopardy their peremptory challenges.

Prospective jurors will be intimately questioned regarding their acquaintances, their associates, past and present, their home life, in fact, upon every point that might tend to show that there is a remote bias or prejudice against members of labor organizations, either collectively or individually. The venireman who fails to answer all these questions satisfactorily will be excused for "cause" and without peremptory challenge.

The program mapped out by attorneys for the defense practically precludes the possibility of seating a jury of 12 men inside of two or three months.

GROWS HAIR ON BALD HEADS

Bald-headed People May Get a New Chance in Life.

In these days when youth is the moving factor in business, when a man makes his mark at thirty-five and is ready to retire at forty-five, when business houses pension the man we call "middle aged" rather than than allow his lagging influence to intrude upon the commercial rush, a bald head is almost fatal to any man's hopes. The following must therefore prove interesting to people who are losing their hair or who are bald.

Resorcin is one of the latest and most effective germ killers discovered by science, and in connection with Beta Napthol, which is both germicidal and antiseptic, a combination is formed which destroys the germs which rob the hair of its nutriment, and also creates a clean and healthy condition of the scalp, which prevents the development of new germs.

Pilocarpin is a well-known agent for restoring the hair to its natural color, where the loss of color has been due to a disease of the scalp. Yet, it is not a coloring matter or dye.

This combination of curatives mixed with alcohol as a stimulant perfects a most effective remedy for hair and scalp troubles.

The famous Rexall "93" Hair Tonic is chiefly composed of Resorcin, Beta Napthol, and Pilocarpin. It helps to make the scalp healthy, to nourish the hair, to stimulate the follicles. Where the head is already bare, it enters the follicles, revitalizes the roots, supplies nourishment, and stimulates a new growth.

We want you to try a few bottles of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, on our personal guarantee that the trial will not cost you a penny if it does not give you absolute satisfaction. That's proof of our faith in this remedy and it should indisputably demonstrate that we know what we are talking about when we say that Rexall "93" Hair Tonic will grow hair on bald heads, except, of course, where baldness has been of such long duration that the roots of the hair are entirely dead, the follicles closed and grown over, and the scalp is glazed.

Remember, we are basing our statements upon what has already been accomplished by the use of Rexall "93" Hair Tonic, and we have the right to assume that what it has done to hundreds of others it will do for you. In any event you cannot lose anything by giving it a trial on our liberal guarantee. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store. The Floding Pharmacy corner East Main and Lundy streets.

CASCARETS INSURE INSIDE CLEANLINESS

The Millions of Cascaret Users Never Have Headache, Constipation, Biliousness or Sick Stomach

It is more necessary that you keep your bowels, liver and stomach clean, pure and fresh than it is to keep the sewers and drainage of a large city free from obstruction.

Are you keeping clean inside with Cascarets—or merely forcing a passageway every few days with salts, cathartic pills or castor oil? This is important.

Cascarets immediately cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour, undigested and fermenting food and foul gases; take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system the decomposed waste matter and poison in the intestines and bowels.

No odds how badly and upset you feel, a Cascaret tonight will straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from your druggist will keep your entire family feeling good for months. Don't forget the children—their little insides need a good, gentle cleansing too.

PRIMARY CRISIS OF FIGHT ON HARMON

Cleveland, Oct. 13.—With or without a presidential preference law such as is now in operation in six states, Ohio is to have a presidential primary, Gov. Harmon is not to have the unanimous Ohio delegation to the national Democratic convention, or even a majority of the delegation, without a vigorous fight in which every effort is to be made to select delegates from Ohio pledged to vote for the nomination of Gov. Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, and in some districts, in all probability, for Champ Clark, of Missouri, or some other Democratic presidential possibility regarded as an out-and-out progressive.

In this fight for a direct voice in the nominating of presidential candidates the machinery at hand in Ohio is to be employed providing the present agitation for a presidential preference law, to be enacted in time for use in the present campaign, is futile. This machinery is that provided in the existing law under which, for the first time in Ohio, delegates and alternates to the national conventions are to be named direct by the people at the district primaries, the delegates to be selected as congressmen are nominated. Action by the general assembly called together in extraordinary session will be necessary if Ohio is to have a straight presidential preference law to govern the selection of delegates to the national conventions next year.

OHIO KNIGHTS TEMPLAR ELECT 1912 OFFICERS

Dayton, Oct. 13.—Officers were elected by the grand commandery, Knights Templars of Ohio, yesterday, for the ensuing year as follows:

McGuire, Marion.

The grand commandery will meet next year in Cleveland on the third Wednesday of October. The Lorain commandery was given an independent dispensation, the application made by Bryan, O., being rejected. Officers were installed by Grand Master W. B. Melish, of the grand encampment of the United States.

BIG ELECTRICAL COMBINE BROKEN BY COURT DECREE

Toledo, Oct. 13.—In the United States court of the northern district of Ohio, Judge John M. Killits yesterday rendered a decree in favor of the government in the case brought by the United States attorney general last summer in Cleveland against the General Electric company and about 40 subsidiary companies controlled by the General Electric company under the Sherman anti-trust law.

The decree in effect orders the Geleral Electric company to conduct all its business under its own name, and the dissolution of the National Electric Lamp company and about 25 subsidiary corporations. The petition was dismissed as to the Kentucky Electrical company. The contention of the government was that the General Electric company and its subsidiary corporations had entered into an unlawful combination in restraint of trade. Wade H. Ellis former attorney general of Ohio, conducted the case for the government.

SAYS EARNEST PRAYER IS NEEDED TO SAVE SALEM

An audience of about 200 persons attended the second afternoon meeting of the revival services Thursday, and listened to a splendid heart-to-heart talk by the evangelist. He spoke in part as follows:

"We talked a little while yesterday about the power of prayer and its reasonableness and profitableness, and so today we want to go just a little farther with it. I am going to give you some instances from my own rather meagre and limited career to prove this. I was at one time urged to come to a little town out west to conduct a revival, and all I heard from them until I went was a line on a postcard, which said, 'We're getting ready.' And when I got there I was convinced that they were only getting ready, for there were but 12 at the first meeting. One of the good deacons, who walked home with me, was very much discouraged. 'That's all right,' said I, 'I saw one little woman in that audience that I know is praying. It's all right.' And I found out afterward that that one little woman—I could almost have put her in my pocket—was the only one that was really vitally concerned. And those meetings went on, and there came a night when the spirit was there in power, and a great work was come in that place, all because that one little woman had gone to God in earnest, agonizing prayer for her city. I began another meeting at one time, and could not seem to make any impression at all. The atmosphere was as cold as the nose of a dog. I was in desperation. I went home at night, and prayed to God till 3 o'clock, and somehow there came to me the assurance that it would be all right, and I lay down and slept like a child. At the meeting the next afternoon 30 ladies came in late, and to my surprise, their eyes were wet with tears. I could not understand it then, but I learned after the meeting that one woman felt that things were in a desperate strait, and she had spoken to these 29 other women, and they had prayed for an hour before the meeting. That afternoon the atmosphere was mellow; it was easy to speak; I did not have to shout and gesticulate to claim their attention, and when the invitation was given that night they almost clambered over the seats in their anxiety to give themselves to Jesus Christ. And all this because those 30 women had prayed; prayed from the depths of their hearts in a time of desperate need. O my friends, it is a time of desperation now, when right here in your own town we need this agonizing prayer to save it from the curse of the saloon; to check the ever increasing desecration of the Sabbath; to stem the tide of moral looseness which threatens to overwhelm the youth of the land. In my first charge in Ironton, O., I decided to take a vacation by making a trip to the Holy Land, and thought it best to hold a few meetings to get the people closer together, to keep them holy during my trip to the Holy Land. And would you believe it, right then when I had not intended to have a revival, when I really did not want a revival, when I wished to pack my trunk for the Holy Land, those people began to pray, and we had such a revival as the town had never known. I did not go to the Holy Land, but had a little holy land of my own at home, and have never had time since then to go to the Holy Land."

Throughout his talk Dr. Jordan brought proof and example to show to his hearers the need of earnest prayer on the part of the Christian people to make the revival a success, and to prove that prayer, both for ourselves and for those away from God, is both reasonable and profitable.

AT THE THEATERS.

"Peck's Bad Boy."

"Peck's Bad Boy," which is to be offered at the Grand opera house Monday, October 16, is the old favorite comedy with music which the grown-ups of today liked so well when they were children, and which the children of today like even more. Yet the comedy is not antiquated but has been brought right up to the minute with the introduction of modern songs and the use of the latest devices in the way of laugh-provoking incidents.

All that is old about "Peck's Bad Boy" of the present season is the ever-popular story of the typical American boy whose pranks upon his father and mother and upon Shultz, the old German grocer, are the talk of the neighborhood in which he lives.

"Three Weeks" in a Few Days.

"Three Weeks," that popular play that has been creating so much favorable comment in the theatrical world, has been booked for the Grand opera house in this city for next Wednesday, October 18. This booking came as a surprise to Manager Kutz, the company having been transferred to Salem from Tyrone, Pa., where the opera house burned. Popular prices have been announced for this attraction.

The Deluge Hos company will give a dance for its members and families Saturday evening in the hall. Lunch will be served. 241l

SIMPLE SOLUTION REMOVES HAIR FROM FACE AND ARMS

Edna Mae Holton, one of the most noted writers on beauty and health writes as follows: "Do not use pastes, powders or the electric needle for removing fuzzy growths or hairs from the face, neck and arms. They invariably cause sores, which are dangerous. I have made a study of this subject and have examined dozens of preparations with the result that I heartily recommend sulfo solution. This is a scientific antiseptic solution that does not even irritate. It simply dissolves the hairs and two or three applications will remove them for good. Sulfo solution costs $1.00 per bottle at any drug store, or direct by mail, in plain wrapper, from Cooper Pharmacal company, 81 W. Lake street, Chicago, Ill.

Sulfo solution is sold and guaranteed by Frank Floding and Bolger & French.

YOU CAN DRESS IN STYLE

If you WANT to—and most every men and woman wants to. You won't have to figure out how, either, because we have already figured it out for you. You can do one of two things in this life—you can wear clothes while paying for them or be poorly dressed while saving for them. It all depends on whether you want to be considered a "down-and-out" or a "live" up-to-date dresser—whether you will make failure or success.

"CREDIT" is the magic word that opens the way to the best method. CREDIT is the rich man's habit and the poor man's friend. The rich man always uses it—the poor man would if he was as good a business man as the rich men.

CREDIT FOR EVERYBODY ON THEIR CLOTHING, HATS & SHOES

You have a lot of friends who always seem to have all the clothes they need. When they want something new—they just get it. Maybe you've wondered how they did it. They have probably wondered why you didn't do the same thing. It's no secret either—those are the kind of people who know what a big advantage it is to be always well-dressed. They know what credit is for—and they use it. They don't make any more money than a lot of you folks either, and yet they always seem to get along without any trouble. That's what CREDIT does for them.

You try it once and you'll never pay spot cash again for your clothes—you'll be so satisfied with the "GREAT WHITE WAY." START TOMORROW by coming here and bringing your family with you. Let us fit them out for Fall and Winter. Just pay us A LITTLE DOWN and we'll spread the rest over several pay-days so that you'll never miss the money. MATTHEWSON VS. BENDER IN FIRST GAME IS THE DOPE

New York, Oct. 13.—All the pent-up excitement of the 1911 season broke loose here today, and King Bedlam reigned supreme. The event toward which fans have been looking forward to for 12 months is at hand and the entire country awaits in suspense first clash of the Athletics and Giants for world supremacy. The tenseness of the moment is written over the face of every baseball enthusiast in the city.

Naturally most of the talk today was concentrated on the subject of the opening game, which will present the first real line of comparison on the abilities of the two combatants.

Mathewson, for New York, and Bender for Philadelphia, will be the opposing flingers in the opening set-to, unless present indications fail.

Bender has shown himself to be probably the best "one game" twirler in the business, and he is almost certain to be delegated to the task, granting, of course, that he warms up in good shape tomorrow. Bender is probably the steadiest of the Athletic pitchers when right, and is moreover a good man against strange batters. "Big Six" is the same sort of a proposition, being effective against any kind of an outfit when there is nothing particular ailing him, and the battle between these two is well worth watching.

Neither McGraw nor Mack would make a definite announcement as to who would represent them on the mound. One noticeable thing is that they are circulating no "bear" stories, and it can be presumed that all is well in both camps so far as physical condition of the athletes is concerned.

The peculiar condition that exists in this championship series is that each team is on the defensive side of a question of supremacy. The Athletics are defending the world's championship, won last year. The Giants are defending their position of supremacy over the Athletics, demonstrated when they trounced the Mackmen in four games out of five played, allowing the Quakers only three runs total in the series, all of them scored in the game when Bender shut out the Giants.

The outcome will depend on how the hostile pitchers compare when they are sent to the slab. Taken as a general proposition there is little to choose between the staffs. The Athletic's corps look stronger for a prolonged siege because of the superiority in numbers of their really effective men, while the Giants seem to have the edge in a short series because of the apparent superiority of Mathewson and Marquard over any heavers possessed by the Athletics.

HIGHS PRACTICE FOR GAME AT ALLIANCE

Salem high has put in a busy week in preparation for the game at Alliance Saturday afternoon. The past few years Salem and Alliance highs have become keen rivals on the gridiron and in view of the fact that Salem failed to cross Alliance's line last season, the local boys are more anxious than ever to claim a victory. Alliance high has proven so great an attraction that it has been booked for the Thanksgiving day game here.

Coach O'Brien has been working the team into new plays this week and they will be given their first real test Saturday in the Alliance game. A few changes may be noted in the varsity line-up hereafter, the coach having switched the team about after the last game. Hutcheson will be on left half and Trotter will be switched to a line position. Hutcheson is showing up in good form and much is expected of him before the season is over. Tackle Leonard is recovering from injuries sustained to his shoulder in the first game of the season at Youngstown. He is not in good enough condition to play unless he is needed and may be in a suit to be used in a pinch. He expects to get back into the game regularly within another week. In his place Harwood may be used, as his work in scrimmage practice has pleased Coach O'Brien.

The team will probably leave on the 12:15 o'clock Stark Electric car for Alliance Saturday, and several rooters expect to accompany the boys.

FAST CANTON ELEVEN TO PLAY HERE SUNDAY

The Canton professionals will be at Amusement park Sunday afternoon at 2:30 to play Salem's first football team. Canton has an exceedingly fast team this year, it is understood, but as the Salem boys have been setting a lively clip, they promise that the Stark county aggregation will have no walkaway. Local people have had no occasion to see just what stuff the Salem team is composed of, as the rain and wet grounds have no opportunity for a fine display of the game when Washingtonville played here two weeks ago. Weather conditions are promising for Sunday and indication point to a large attendance at the game in which the Salem team is expected to show its full strength.

No material changes in the line-up will be made for this game, as only slight bruises resulted from the hard struggle with the Youngstown giants last Sunday.

Schring Challenges Alliance.

Alliance, Oct. 13.—Schring trapshooters have issued a challenge to the Alliance sportsmen for a clay pigeon match to be shot some time soon. The members of the Schring Gun club have weekly shoots and are in practice, but in spite of the fact that the boys here have not had any opportunity to shoot they will accept the challenge and the contest will be held some time soon.

* * *

East Ends to Alliance.

The East Ends will journey to Alliance Sunday afternoon to play a return game with the Main Street Athletic club's team of that city. These teams played a no-score game here last Sunday and both are now confident of winning the second contest.

A BOLD STEP

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broad-cast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines.

Thus Dr. Pierce has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits and placed them in a class all by themselves by making them remedies OF KNOWN COMPOSITION. By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the fullest scrutiny.

Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it in plain English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same.

From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious agents and that they are made from native, medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, overworked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed, long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Squaw-Weed." Our knowledge of the uses of not a few of our most valuable native, medicinal plants was gained from the Indians.

As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.

AT OHIO'S CAPITAL

AMAZING NEGLECT OF DUTY DISCLOSED

Columbus, Oct. 13.—The slipshod manner in which fish and meat were purchased for the Ohio penitentiary, and the chances for graft in this connection, were shown up in the testimony brought out at the probing of this institution by Attorney General Hogan, Thursday afternoon. C. B. Randall, the former steward, and Thomas J. Finn, the former superintendent of subsistence, at the penitentiary, both of whom were discharged, were subjected to a most thorough and merciless crossexamination by General Hogan, who is going about it in a most business like way to find out to what extent the state was cheated in the purchase of supplies, and who received the rake-offs it is believed were given.

Examination of Randall disclosed that Michael Joyce, who furnished the fish for the penitentiary also furnished fish for three other state institutions at Columbus, for the Athens State hospital and the Gallipolis hospital for epileptics. Admissions from Randall also showed that under the loose contract Randall made with Joyce, the latter could send any kind of fish to the penitentiary that he wished to, and this he did. The testimony showed that he sent more herring, which is one of the cheapest selling fishes, than the other and better fishes.

Randall was asked by General Hogan why he paid 8½ cents a pound for fish when it was now being supplied to the penitentiary for less than four cents a pound. Randall said that fish was cheaper now than it was before, because of being more plentiful. Randall was asked whether or not he knew if the state got full weight on its purchases, and he said that he did not know as to this, and that he was only responsible for the quality of the supplies and the prices paid for them.

Finn said on the stand that it was part of his duty to receive the food supplies and weigh the same. He said that while the scales were inaccurate they also showed the state got full weight. He said they frequently would show overweight. He said that he had tried to get Warden Jones to repair the scales, but that this was never done. He denied that he had told a convict to make a bluff at weighing the fish. He said that it was the duty of the storekeeper to weigh everything outside before it was delivered to him.

He was asked why it was that he furnished the prisoners with 1250 pounds of fish for the Friday dinner, when now it is only deemed necessary to use 800 pounds for this purpose. He said that he gave each prisoner from one to three fish, while now but one fish is given to each. Finn admitted that no invoices were sent with either fish or beef deliveries, although these were given with other things.

Finn's testimony disclosed how the state had paid for 2,700 pounds of butter that it never received. Finn said that every shipment would be short in weight, falling below what the invoice called for. Finn said that he called the attention of the board of managers to this, and that they had told him that the matter had been adjusted and that the company which furnished the butter had been paid for this shortage. It seems that it was customary to make an allowance for the evaporation of water from the butter, so the 2,700 pounds of butter in reality was water which evaporated from the product after it was shipped by the company to the penitentiary.

It may be stated now that the state is not paying for water that evaporates from the bucket.

Henry Becker, of Columbus, who received the money for the fish delivered by Joyce, who was put on the stand, said that he advanced the money to Joyce with which to buy the fish, and that was the reason why the vouchers were made out to him. He was sharply interrogated for the purpose of finding out if his records showed the weight of the fish delivered by Joyce to the penitentiary. General Hogan's purpose was to learn if there was 1,250 pounds in each delivery, as paid for by the state. Becker declared that his records would not show the weight.

General Hogan elicited the information from him that he issued checks to pay the express companies for bringing the fish to Columbus. Hogan took the dates of these checks and he will call upon the express companies for information as to whether or not their records will show the weight of the fish which they received for Joyce and for which expressage these checks were for.

Warden Jones said that the charges made by Solomon Shipley, a discharged guard, that prisoners were treated brutally at the penitentiary, were gross misrepresentations. Shipley alleged an insane convict was kept handcuffed for 27 months; that he was naked and slept on a stone floor. He also said unruly prisoners were strung up by the wrists from 12 to 24 hours. He also alleged the worst criminals were made trusties.

SHE HAD CONSTANT PAIN

Until Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Dewittville, N.Y.—"Before I started to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I suffered nearly all the time with headaches, backaches, and bearing down pains, and had a continuous pain in my left side. It made me sick if I tried to walk much, and my back was so weak that I was obliged to wear corsets all the time. But now I do not have any of these troubles. I have a fine strong baby daughter now, which I did not have before taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. A. A. Giles, Route 44, Dewittville, N.Y.

The above is only one of the thousands of grateful letters which are constantly being received by the Pinkham Medicine Company of Lynn, Mass., which prove beyond a doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, actually does cure these obstinate diseases of women, and that every such suffering woman owes it to herself to at least give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial before submitting to an operation, or giving up hope of recovery.

Mrs. Pinkham of Lynn, Mass., invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health and her advice is free.

November's Scribner's.

General Funston's account of his "Capture of Emilio Aguinaldo," in the November Scribner, reads almost like a chapter in some highly sensational novel of adventure. Its impression is made by the surprising nature of the plot involved, and the desperate character of the expedition that succeeded in putting an end to the war. Its success brought General Funston his promotion to a brigadiership in the regular army.

Hauling Lumber to Silver Plant.

MORE ROOM NEEDED

God, to find and deliver us from sin and death. LaFayette came not to improve himself not for any gain to himself, for he had a name at home and worldly goods amply sufficient for all his days, but he came to give his life if need be for the cause of liberty. When Pizarro began the conquest of Peru, he drew a line upon the sands of the Gulf, and said to his soldiers, "Behind you is Spain. Before you are battles to be fought and hardships to endure, and gold and glory to be won. As for me, I will go forward. Who will step over the line, who will accompany me?" And all obeyed the desire of their hearts, and stepped forward to win gold and glory. Christ came not for glory, for He had the glory of the Son of God. He came to earth that, created in His own image, we might be moved by the love of truth in our own hearts that we might seek and save that which was lost."

"Sin dulls the mental life, it clouds our intellect, it deadens our physical powers so that we cannot perceive the real things of life. A man in a hotel, wishing to be sociable, asked me to take a drink, and I told him that I did not indulge. He asked me to smoke with him, and I again declined. He proposed to have a game of pool, and I told him that I did not play. In his amazement, he said, with an oath, "What do you do?" That man's conception of life was to take a drink, to smoke a cigar, to play a game of pool, and when he met a man with another sort of ideal he was to him a source of wonder. There may be men in this house who think that the only thing in life is to get up and eat, to do their work, to lie down and sleep, to take an occasional drink, perhaps, and play a game, or watch a game upon God's Sabbath day. Sin dulls the spiritual life, gives to us a false conception of life, makes us blind to the real things of life.

"I knew a man who tilled the soil of his farm at haphazard, who cared for his crops after a fashion, who reaped a scattered and scanty harvest and thought it the best the land would produce. But another man took that piece of land, studied it, analyzed it, and last season actually harvested a crop worth $8,000. He had brought into that community new ideals in the raising of fruit. His neighbors go to him, and ask in wonder, "How do you do it?" As a result the whole community has been revolutionized, and may God bless even a benefactor like that. God plants in our hearts a new vision of life, and we fashion our lives after it."

"Hawthorne in his story of the "Great Stone Face" tells of a benefactor who was one day to come to the town, and whose face would resemble a great stone face on the cliff above the town. And in the story a little boy, as he grows up in expectation of the coming of the benefactor, as he watches at twilight the stone face in its rugged beauty, grows in its likeness, and his fellow townsmen at last see in him their benefactor. Thus Christ gives to us His image and we follow him and are molded into his likeness. When we are lost we need the flood of sunshine to guide our footsteps homeward, and we need the sunshine of Christ to show us the way home from sin.

"There are those among the people of Salem, who say they have no desire to go to church, to read the Bible. Is that true of any of you? Was there never a time when you did pray, when you did tell the word of truth, when you went to the house of God, and found pleasure there? Christ comes to seek you because you won't come to seek him. Some even run away from the searching Christ. I know a young lady who said she would not go to church any more, because she came home under conviction of sin, miserable, troubled by compunctions of conscience. In a meeting of tremendous power a mother was deeply concerned for her boy, and when on the night she hoped to have him come out for Christ he went to the country, her heart was breaking. But that boy was so under conviction of sin, so troubled in heart, that he had to come back, he walked five miles that night to the meeting, and mother and son, with tears streaming down their happy faces, left the place together. O friends, Christ came to seek and to save those who are paralyzed in sin, who have fled from the salvation of God. He came to save us not to sit in our pews, but he saves us to a life of service. My prayer is that the Holy Ghost may enter into your hearts, that you will give yourselves up to a life of service. How many of you have spoken to men of their soul's welfare? Can you say that you have been used to God to lead one soul to Him? Have you any stars in you crown? A man at work is stricken unto death. The physician tells him that he has but a short time to live, and the man requests a minister, but none can be summoned in time. The doctor mentions a deacon for whom the the man has worked, but the dying man says, "No! I have worked for that man for 30 years, we have talked of everything else, but he has never once spoken to me about my soul. Tell him that I died cursing him!" O brother, sister, the noblest work you can ever do is to lead a brother, a sister, to Jesus Christ. He came to seek and to save us to service. My brother, my sister, are you a follower of His? Can you honestly say that you believe a moral life will save you? Nothing can save but repentance and the confession of Jesus Christ. He says, Follow me. He says—O bless God for the gift of His son and he sought and saved us.

As the audience sat with bowed heads, after the closing prayer, all sang softly and tenderly that beautiful old hymn, "I'm praying for you," and then were dismissed by Dr. Jordan with the benediction.

Announcement was made Thursday evening that each church will conduct its own Sunday school exercises Sunday morning, and then all will meet in the auditorium at 10:45 for union preaching service. There will be a men's mass meeting at 2:30 Sunday afternoon, and services at the usual hour in the evening.
